The Rebel of the School by Mrs. L. T. Meade

Kathleen O'Hara is a young pretty girl sent to school in England from Ireland by her father to get a good education, but Kathleen has other ideas. She quickly becomes friends with the girls of the school who don't pay for their education and in turn these girls consider Kathleen to be their Queen. What trouble will Kathleen and her friends get into? And how will the school deal with the naughty "Rebel of the School?" (Summary by Elaine Webb)
